The Indiana Activity Director's Association invites you to become an exhibitor or sponsor of our organization. We provide educational training to Activity Professionals working in Long Term Care, Retirement Communities, Assisted Living, Adult Day Service, and Hospitals. Other attendees at our conferences will include program managers and administrators.

The 2010 conferences will be held March 10-11 at The Marten House & Lilly Conference Center, Indianapolis and October 6-7 at The Seasons Lodge & Conference Center, Nashville, Indiana. The spring 2011 conference will be held at the Drury Inn & Suites 8180 N. Shadeland Avenue, Indianapolis, IN.

These conferences provide an opportunity for you to network, present your products and talk with decision makers who have buying power.

Attached you will find the benefits awarded to each category of sponsorship. If you choose to participate as a sponsor please send a letter with your signed form advising IADA which conferences you will attend as an exhibitor.

Also, this year we invite you to join us for a welcome reception in the Exhibitor's Hall on Wednesday Evening and to breakfast on Thursday morning at each conference.
